A chat with Kodey Cannon, realtor, Keller Williams

GOOD AFTERNOON

DONALD JAY HOWTON, III
WESTERN STAR,
SOCIAL EDITOR

Kodey Cannon, 24, is an energetic, hardworking young man. A native of Sipsey, he has lived in Gardendale for several years. Kodey earned his real estate license in 2024 and works for Keller Williams, the Humphries Group in Gardendale and Jasper.

An amiable, unassuming gentleman, he is particularly honored to work with a family or individual buying their first home. He enjoys getting to know his clients and developing a trusting relationship. The youngest of two siblings, Kodey enjoys playing golf and spending time with his nephew, Asher, 9, and niece, Aspen, 5. Kodey, who never meets a stranger, is a member of Faith Baptist Church in Argo and participates in weekly visitations. It is his goal to one day own his own real estate brokerage business.

What attracted you to the real estate industry?

Kodey: Wanting to be my own boss, I became interested in real estate and the housing market while a student at Wallace State Community College. I researched the real estate industry, its procedures and policies and decided I wanted to become a real estate agent. I studied and subsequently earned my Alabama real estate license in 2024.

Describe a typical day?

Kodey: I start each morning at the computer answering emails, scheduling appointments, inspections and in the afternoon meeting with other realtors. I commit my time and talent to completing each deal because they are never the same. I can be reached at 205-913-9038.

Do you specialize in commercial or residential sales?

Kodey: I list and sell both commercial and residential properties.

Who has been most influential in your life?

Kodey: My father, Robert Cannon, has had a profound influence in my life. He has always been there for me, encouraging me along the way.

What is the state of the real estate market today?

Kodey: The real estate market in Alabama continues to be a buyer's market. There is a large real estate inventory in Alabama which contributes to a buyer's market.

Do you have an inspirational quote?

Kodey: Yes Sir. "The best ability is availability."

What is your favorite meal?

Kodey: My favorite meal is, without question, turkey and dressing with sweet potatoes, turnip greens and for dessert a slice of peanut butter cake.

McCoy was the guest speaker.

A graduate of Western Carolina University with a Master of Biology, McCoy spoke on stormwater benefits of stream restoration.

The mission of the organization is to protect environmentally significant land in central Alabama and to grow the Red Rock Trail System in Jefferson County.

Their motto is "Protect land for better water."

The number one pollutant in waterways is sediment.

McCoy, 36, said, "The Freshwater Land Trust can do stream restoration to improve the aquatic habitat for the flora and fauna, but it also has important benefits for the people around the streams."

He discussed stormwater benefits of stream restoration including primary flood mitigation and water quality improvement by reducing erosion.

Now in their 30th year, the Freshwater Land Trust continues working toward the restoration of Turkey Creek, Beaver Creek and the Cahaba River at Grants Mill. The Cahaba River is the most biologically diverse in Alabama.

Wayne served as master of ceremonies with church-related jokes and lighthearted fun.

The Expressions of Faith opened the show with a wave of energy, getting the crowd moving with reworked traditional gospel hits and testimonies that stirred emotion.

Paul Porter invigorated the crowd further with songs such as "Ain't No Way I Can Lose" and the gospel classic "Two Wings," and many audience members were encouraged to join the group in the aisles to congregate as followers of the Holy Spirit.

The Canton Spirituals closed the show with crowd favorites such as "Searching," "(Clean Up What I've Messed Up) Starting My Life Over" and "Heavenly Choir."

Old Saint Paul Baptist Church celebrates 131 years

Pastors Jeffery Alexander and Earl A. Caruthers Sr. with co-pastors and members during recent services.

BY ROBERT BURGINS, JR.
WESTERN STAR STAFF

Old Saint Paul Baptist Church in Bessemer recently celebrated its 131st anniversary, honoring its congregants and the church's service to communities throughout Bessemer.

The theme was taken from Ephesians 3:20-21. Rev. Adrian Minor of Christ The Lord Church of Atlanta, Georgia, brought the morning message.

Pastor Jeffery Alexander and the Old Saint Paul congregation honored the memories of Pastor Alfonzo January, Deacon Thomas Jones, Deacon Simmie Roberson Sr., Sister Angelia Johnson, Sister Vezelia Baldwin, Sister Dearther Johnson, Brother Truman Robinson, Deacon James Alexander, Sister Brenda Shelley and Brother Ralph Hubbard.

They also honored elder and faithful living members Brother Wilburn Curtis, Sister Dorthy Curtis, Sister Mary J. Speed and Deacon Brown L. Whitfield.

Sister Beyunka Parker shared the church's history, Balinda Caldwell gave the welcome and occasion, and Brother B.J. Burgin led the meditation.

Members of Christ The Lord Church of Atlanta were the visiting guests, and the choir brought a spirit-filled rendition of the gospel number "The Blood Still Works" in the ceremonial opening.

Pastor Earl A. Caruthers Sr. of Christ The Lord Church brought the thoughtful message from Exodus 33:12-18, on the subject "Experiencing God's Reveal Presence." He spoke on the diligence Christians should have in seeking God thoroughly in their lives.

It was a great church experience and a touching historical acknowledgment to realize one of our communal spiritual sites has been around for 131 years, serving as a staple and exemplar of God's grace in our time.

Chairperson Sister Teresa Henderson and church members made sure the day was as memorable as possible with warm greetings and doses of love.

Pastor Alexander said, "We all should conduct ourselves in a sincere and real manner, for people will better receive you when being yourself than when trying to be something we're not and that's what God loves, us coming as we are."

The church's kitchen staff, overseen by Sister Jean Maye, shared nourishing dishes with members and visitors.

We celebrate our churches throughout Bessemer (Jefferson County as a whole) for their continued service and inspiration within our lives as we celebrate Pastor Alexander and the Old Saint Paul congregation.

Keep sharing the Eternal Word.
