

Sheriff, Commission District 3 and Cutoff tax office on Tuesday's ballot

Jefferson County voters will choose a sheriff and fill all five County Commission seats Tuesday, Nov. 3, and Bessemer Cutoff voters will pick an assistant tax assessor for the Bessemer Division, along with the statewide ticket and four proposed amendments to the state constitution. No local amendment or referendum is on the county's ballot.

Sheriff Mark Pettway, a Democrat, faces Republican Jacob Reach of McCalla, a retired sheriff's office captain who is an investigator with the Calera Police Department.

In County Commission District 3, which takes in Hueytown, Pleasant Grove, McCalla, Concord, Rock Creek, Adger and the western end of the county, part of Bessemer and most of Hoover's Jefferson County side, Commission President Jimmie Stephens of Bessemer, a Republican, faces Democrat Camara Blue of McCalla, a pastor and former firefighter. A chat with Linus, in the pumpkin patch, waiting on the Great Pumpkin

DONALD JAY HOWTON, III
WESTERN STAR,
SOCIAL EDITOR

Halloween is tomorrow. Ghosts, goblins, witches, Spiderman, T. Rex, Wolverine, Dr. Doom and Mario will appear. The Great Pumpkin is again expected in the pumpkin patch. Linus believes that the Great Pumpkin will rise from the pumpkin patch on Halloween night and bring toys for all the good boys and girls.

He believes in the Great Pumpkin. He believes in something unseen. Always stay true to what you believe.

Linus's friends will be celebrating Halloween as he awaits the arrival of the Great Pumpkin. Unfortunately, after 60 years, the Great Pumpkin still never appears.

However, Linus remains hopeful in the face of disappointment. Maybe next year.

Why do you give up trick or treat for the Great Pumpkin?

Linus: Because the Great Pumpkin is more important. Instead of collecting candy, I am in the most sincere pumpkin patch I can find, waiting.

Does the Great Pumpkin fly through the air on Halloween?

Linus: If you believe, of course he does. He rises out of the pumpkin patch to deliver toys to the children.

After all these years, is it still worth it to sit in the pumpkin patch?

Linus: Yes Sir. My belief in the Great Pumpkin is sincere. Belief isn't about results, it's about sincerity.

Does Charlie Brown get many rocks?

Linus: Well last year he got seven. Unfortunately, he is expecting more in his pillowcase this Saturday night. Maybe this year, Charlie Brown will join me in the pumpkin patch.

Are you wearing a different costume this Halloween?

Linus: Yes Sir. Instead of going as a ghost, I have decided to dress as Woody from Toy Story. I hope his cowboy charm and loyalty will attract the Great Pumpkin.

GOOD AFTERNOON

What is your favorite meal on Halloween?

Linus: I have always eaten popcorn, pizza, pumpkin bread and bobbed for apples on Halloween. I wash it down with apple cider.

A career Bessemer policeman for 26 years, Chief Carmichael was appointed chief by former Bessemer Mayor Kenneth Gullett in July 2025.

The disciplinary procedures will be dictated by the rules and policies of the Jefferson County Personnel Board.

"Because this remains an active personnel matter, the Mayor's Office is committed to allowing the official administrative process to run its course and will decline further comment on the specifics of the disciplinary action until that process has concluded," stated

sioner Lashunda Scales in District 1, which covers Fairfield, Midfield, Minor and Edgewater, both Democrats, are unopposed, as are Republicans Joe Knight in District 4 and Mike Bolin in District 5.

For assistant tax assessor of the Bessemer Division, Charles R. Winston of Hueytown, a Democrat who has held the office since 2015, faces Republican Delor Baumann, the former mayor of Hueytown. Democrat Mykeshia Myles Jones, the Brighton city clerk, who defeated Assistant Tax Collector Ron Marshall in the June runoff, is unopposed for assistant tax collector of the Bessemer Division. Tax Assessor Gaynell Hendricks and Tax Collector J.T. Smallwood, both Democrats, are unopposed countywide.

Seven judgeships on the countywide ballot are unopposed: Democrats Brian Huff, Shanta Craig Owens, Kechia Davis and Ruby Clark for Places 1, 2, 3 and 10 on the 10th Judicial Circuit bench, and Democrats Martha Reeves Cook, Maria Fortune and Tiffany Jones for Places 1, 2 and 7 on the Jefferson County District Court. Ronnie Dixon, a Republican, is unopposed for District 4 on the Jefferson County Board of Education, the only county school board seat on the ballot this year.

In the Legislature, state Sen. Merika Coleman, a Democrat, is unopposed in Senate District 19, which covers Bessemer, Hueytown, Pleasant Grove, Fairfield, Midfield, Brighton, Lipscomb, McCalla, Concord and the Cutoff's western communities. In Senate District 16, which takes in most of Hoover's Jefferson County side, Sen. J.T. "Jabo" Waggoner, a Republican who has served since 1990, faces Democrat Spencer Stone of Pelham. Sen. Rodger M. Smitherman, a Democrat, in District 18, which includes Ross Bridge, Shannon and Oxmoor, and Republican Matt Woods in District 5, on the county's rural western edge, are unopposed.

In state House District 15, which covers McCalla, the southwest edge of Bessemer and part of Hoover, Rep. Leigh Hulsey, a Republican, faces Democrat Nell Brown of McCalla. In District 16, which takes in Concord, Rock Creek, Adger and North Johns, Rep. Bryan Brinyark, a Republican, faces Democrat Christian Martin of Northport. In District 47, in southeast Hoover, Rep. Mike Shaw, a Republican, faces Democrat Jim Toomey of Vestavia Hills.

Reps. Ontario J. Tillman in District 56, which covers most of Bessemer and Lipscomb; Patrick Sellers in District 57, which covers Hueytown, Pleasant Grove, Midfield and Brighton; and Travis Hendrix in District 55, which shares Fairfield with District 52, all Democrats, are unopposed, as are Democrat GiGi Hayes in District 52, who won the June runoff for the seat held by Rep. Kelvin Datcher, and Rep. David L. Faulkner, a Republican, in District 46, which covers Bluff Park. In District 60, which reaches Mulga, Democrat Alicia Escott Lumpkin, who defeated Rep. Juandalyann Givan in the May primary, is unopposed.

Nearly all of the Cutoff is in the 7th Congressional District, where U.S. Rep. Terri Sewell, a Democrat, faces Republican Ammie Akin. The southeast corner of Hoover is in the 6th District, where U.S. Rep. Gary Palmer, a Republican, faces Democrat Maurice Mercer, a former Pelham council president. Yvette M. Richardson, a Democrat, is unopposed for District 4 on the State Board of Education, which covers most of the Cutoff.

No local amendment or referendum is on Jefferson County's ballot. The Secretary of State's Aug. 26 certification lists local amendments for 26 counties, and Jefferson is not among them, and the county's notice of the election, which ran in the Star Oct. 2, names no ballot question.

At the top of the ballot, Democrat Doug Jones, a former U.S. senator, and Republican Tommy Tuberville, the state's senior U.S. senator, are running for governor to succeed Gov. Kay Ivey, who is term-limited. Democrat Phillip Ensler, a state representative from Montgomery, and Republican John Wahl, the former state party chairman, are running for lieutenant governor, and Democrat Everett Wess, a Birmingham attorney, and U.S. Rep. Barry Moore, a Republican, for the Senate seat Tuberville is giving up.

Democrat Jeff McLaughlin and Republican Katherine Robertson are running for attorney general and Democrat Wayne Rogers and Republican Caroleene Dobson for secretary of state, both open seats. Democrat Rosilyn Houston faces State Treasurer Young Boozer, a Republican, and Democrat Violet Edwards faces State Auditor Andrew Sorrell, a Republican. Democrat Ron Sparks, who was commissioner of agriculture and industries from 2003 to 2011, and Republican Corey Hill, the mayor of Douglas, are running for that office.

On the Public Service Commission, where the incumbents in both places on the ballot lost Republican primaries this year, Democrat James O. Gordon and Republican Matt Gentry, the Cullman County sheriff, are running for Place 1 and Democrat Sheila D. McNeil and Republican Jim Zig Zeigler, the former state auditor, for Place 2.

Of the six appellate court seats on the ballot, only Supreme Court Place 8 is contested, between Democrat Ashleigh Meyer Dunham and Justice Greg Shaw, a Republican. Republicans Brad Mendheim for Supreme Court Place 7, Benjamin M. Bowden and Matt Fridy for Places 4 and 5 on the Court of Civil Appeals, and Mary Windom and Riggs Walker for Places 4 and 5 on the Court of Criminal Appeals are unopposed.

Four proposed amendments to the Alabama Constitution are on every ballot in the state. The Fair Ballot Commission's statements on them, posted at AlabamaVotes.gov, say none of the four carries a cost or a tax. A yes vote changes the constitution; a no vote leaves it as is.

Amendment 1 concerns the office of lieutenant governor. Under current law, if the office becomes vacant during a term, it generally stays vacant until the next regular election for it. The amendment would require an election to fill the office for the rest of the term if the vacancy comes more than 60 days before the next general election at which state officers are elected.

It would also let the Legislature set the pay of the lieutenant governor and of the officers of the House and Senate by joint resolution, and it would require that any spending of legislative funds on members' travel be approved by an officer elected by the full membership of that chamber. It was proposed by Act 2026-341, sponsored by Sen. Sam Givhan.

Amendment 2 would create a way for two or more neighboring county school boards to merge into one multi-county school system by formal resolution of each board.

Before a merger could take effect, the State Board of Education would have to study its effects on students, families, programs, transportation, finances, taxes and school operations, and publish the study. If 25 percent of the qualified voters in any of the affected county systems filed a written protest, the merger could go forward only if a majority of voters in each affected county, and a majority of all votes cast across the counties, approved it at the next general election. It was proposed by Act 2026-378, sponsored by Rep. Terri Collins.

Amendment 3 would require every local board of education to adopt a policy requiring each public K-12 school to conduct the Pledge of Allegiance at the start of each school day, with students given the chance to recite it voluntarily, and a policy allowing student-initiated, student-led prayer. No student could be required to take part in the prayer, and students could opt out of the pledge or the prayer on their own beliefs. Reported violations would go to the local superintendent. It was proposed by Act 2026-379, sponsored by Rep. Reed Ingram.

Amendment 4 would require local boards of education to adopt a policy requiring each public K-12 school to broadcast the first stanza of "The Star-Spangled Banner" at least once a week during school hours. A board could instead allow a school-approved band, choir, vocal group or vocalist to perform it, using the version archived by the Library of Congress. It was proposed by Act 2026-424, sponsored by Sen. Gerald Allen.

Polls are open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Tuesday. Voters must show a valid photo ID. The ballot offers a straight-party line for the Alabama Democratic Party and the Alabama Republican Party, and the offices that run by district appear only in the precincts they cover.

An absentee ballot returned by hand is due at the absentee election manager's office by the close of business Monday, Nov. 2. One returned by mail must arrive by noon on election day. Results will be posted at each polling place after the count and at AlabamaVotes.gov.

food trucks, and the Elks Lodge donated hot dogs and other refreshments.

The Reckless and Twist & Shout rides drew shouts from riders. Magic Jump Shots had basketball games, D & S Clowns did face painting and balloon art, and How High Inflatables ran a train ride around the center's grounds.

The Bessemer Police Department attended.

AARP, AmeriCorps Seniors, New Life Interfaith Ministries and other organizations and churches handed out pamphlets and brochures.

"This event is about bridging the gaps between our younger and elder communities and to give many of our vendors the opportunity to network with one another," said event coordinator Jalen Chatman.

"In preparation for this event we wanted to celebrate with our community and bring fun and music to engage with Bessemer residents and cater to their likes and have information here that can bring awareness to health care needs, insurance, voter registration and our D9 Organizations such as the AKA Sorority and just have a good time together," Chatman said.

Dreka Ray and DJs from Hot 107.7 hosted and played music throughout the day.

Twins Jamilah and Kamilah celebrate 50th birthday in Ensley

Twins Jamilah and Kamilah share a smile at their 50th birthday celebration.

BY ROBERT BURGINS, JR.
WESTERN STAR STAFF

Twins Jamilah and Kamilah celebrated their 50th birthday on a recent Sunday with a gathering at an up-and-coming art studio on 19th Street in Ensley.

The attire was formal dress, with athletic shoes to complete the outfits, and the birthday theme was "50 Sneaked Up

On Us."

Jamilah and Kamilah are businesswomen and artists. They have overcome many obstacles to set an example in their communities in Jefferson County and Georgia, respectively.

Family and friends came from near and far, along with coworkers, to enjoy one another's presence and celebrate the twins.

Bright Star is Tasting Table's prime rib pick for the Southeast

The Bright Star in Bessemer is the Southeast pick on Tasting Table's list of "Prime Rib Restaurants Worth a Special Trip in Every US Region," published Oct. 16.

"The Bright Star opened in 1907, making it Alabama's oldest family-owned restaurant," the entry says. It names Greek-style steaks, Gulf Coast seafood and homestyle pies as the restaurant's specialties.

Tasting Table lists nine degrees of doneness for the prime rib, along with five salad options, 10 side dishes and 11 add-ons such as lobster tail and oysters.

The restaurant received a James Beard Foundation America's Classics award in 2010.

The Bright Star is at 304 19th St. N. in Bessemer.

Re-elect
TERRI SEWELL
Democrat for Congress

SEWELL DELIVERS FOR JEFFERSON COUNTY

MORE JOBS

Sewell helped cut average unemployment in the district by over two thirds since taking office. She has hosted 15 annual job fairs and led initiatives to help our largest job creators grow by bringing:

- 1,500 jobs to the Amazon Center in Bessemer
- $474,000 for the Small Business Accelerator Program in Jefferson County
- 650 jobs at the Bessemer Dollar General Center
- $1 billion expansion at Mercedes-Benz plant in Vance, Alabama creating 600 additional jobs
- $500,000 to the Bessemer Airport for infrastructure improvements and pilot training

LOWER COSTS

Sewell has fought to tackle the affordability crisis and put more money in your pockets:

- Helped constituents recover $30+ million in federal benefits since taking office
- Passed the 21st Century ROAD to Housing Act to bring down housing costs
- Secured $1 million for the Villas Early Learning Center to help more families afford childcare
